MyPrime.com is your pharmacy benefit website

One website to help manage all of your prescription medicine needs, including PrimeMail®, your home delivery pharmacy service.

Visit from any device — even your phone! MyPrime.com is ready wherever you are.

Set up your account and preferences

Make MyPrime.com work for you — customize your experience by registering your account. Then set your preferences to receive communications in your preferred way and language* by:

- Email
- Letters
- Phone calls
- Text

Once you register, you'll have access to detailed information about your pharmacy benefits.

Refill and renew prescriptions

You can easily request a refill of a current medicine. If the medicine has no more refills or has expired, you can renew the prescription. We'll take care of the details.

Switch a prescription to home delivery

Are you tired of waiting in line every month? Transition a prescription for long-term medicine to PrimeMail home delivery at MyPrime.com. You'll save time by getting up to a 90-day supply delivered anywhere in the U.S., with free standard shipping and 24/7 support.

Go paperless. You can set your preferences for email, phone and text.

* We strive to send communications in your preferred language and method of alerts (email, text messages or phone). Not all communications can be sent in the preferences you select. In some cases we will default to another type of alert and in English only.
